Important information

This is the Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) for AAMI Income Protection. This PDS is issued by Suncorp Life & Superannuation Limited ABN 87 073 979530 AFSL 229880 (Suncorp) and is also your policy document.

The insurance cover described in this PDS covers two separate financial products provided as follows:

Suncorp is the insurer of, and incurs solely the obligations relating to, the Disability Benefit.

AAI Limited ABN 48 005 297 807 AFSL 230859 (AAI) is the insurer of, and incurs solely the obligations relating to, the Redundancy Benefit.

In this PDS, AAI is responsible for the wording in relation to the Redundancy Benefit.

Suncorp is not responsible for, or liable in respect of, insurance cover provided by AAI under this PDS and AAI is not responsible for, or liable in respect of, insurance cover provided by Suncorp under this PDS.

Suncorp has been authorised to advise that it has been appointed under a binder as an authorised representative of AAI to enter into contracts of general insurance, limited to the Redundancy Benefit, on behalf of AAI and when providing this financial service acts on behalf of AAI. Suncorp does not provide any financial product advice under the binder but may do so under its own AFSL authorisations. This same arrangement does not apply where financial services are provided by AAI through the AAMI website.

Both AAI and Suncorp receive insurance premiums for the cover they issue in this PDS. Although Suncorp's staff members receive salaries, bonuses and other benefits from the Suncorp Group, neither Suncorp or AAI, nor any of AAI's staff members receive remuneration like commissions or other payments for the provision of this financial service.

Suncorp is also authorised to deal with and settle claims on behalf of AAI in respect of the Redundancy Benefit.

When reading this PDS, please refer to Section 15 What do we mean by that? which shows the meaning of various terms throughout.

Suncorp and AAI are each a related body corporate of Suncorp-Metway Limited ABN 66 010 831 722 (Suncorp-Metway). Various products and services are provided by different entities in the Suncorp Group. The different entities of the Suncorp Group are not responsible for, do not guarantee and are not liable in respect of products and services provided by other entities in the Suncorp Group. Suncorp-Metway does not guarantee and is not liable for Suncorp Income Protection. This product is not a bank deposit or other bank liability.

If you are issued an AAMI Income Protection policy, this PDS, together with the information you provide in your application and the schedule, constitutes your insurance policy and is evidence of your insurance contract with us. You should read this document in conjunction with the schedule because together they contain important information relating to your policy. Please keep this PDS and your schedule in a safe place. Your schedule is issued to you based on the information provided by you to us on your application for insurance.

AAMI Income Protection is not a savings plan. The primary purpose is to provide a benefit under the terms and conditions of the policy in the occurrence of a claimable event.

All the information contained in this PDS is current at the time of issue. We may change or update any information in this PDS from time to time. If the change is not materially adverse, we may notify you about that change by preparing an update on our website, www.aami.com.au/income. You can also obtain a printed copy of this free of charge by contacting us (please refer to the back page for details). If the change is a material or significant one, we will generally notify you within 3 months of the change occurring.

We may also make improvements to your policy without any increase to your premium. If we make a change to your policy which in your opinion was adverse to you, we will, if you make a claim, assess your claim on the terms of the policy before the change took place.

If you are issued an AAMI Income Protection policy, you are the sole policy owner and insured person listed on the schedule. You are covered subject to the terms and conditions of your policy 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. If premiums payable under the policy are paid (please refer to Section 7 Your premium), your policy will continue until your 65th birthday, unless your policy stops earlier (please refer to Section 5 When cover stops).

Before you buy this insurance, please read this PDS carefully, including Section 6 When we will not pay. Any information contained in this PDS has been prepared by Suncorp without taking into account your particular objectives, financial situation or needs. For that reason, before acting on the information, you should consider the appropriateness of the information in regards to your own circumstances.

For details on how to contact us, please refer to the back page.

Quick facts about AAMI Income Protection

Sometimes it's tempting to not read insurance documents from cover to cover. We appreciate that, but we encourage you to read the whole of this document because understanding your AAMI Income Protection policy is important. To help you out, below are some quick facts about the benefits we offer. We've also included references to where, in this document, you can find more detail.

Disability Benefit (more details Section 3.1)

If you can't work because you are sick or injured, you may be able to claim on your Disability Benefit. This will provide an income so you can concentrate on getting better and getting back to work. When you apply for Income Protection, you should consider the following:

The monthly benefit you can apply for can be up to 75% of your monthly income (including regular bonuses and commissions and superannuation) up to a maximum of $10,000 (see also Section 3.6).

No medical tests are required at application.

You can choose a benefit period of 1 or 2 years. Any benefits will stop after the chosen benefit period, regardless of whether you have fully recovered or if you have returned to work.

Your policy has a 30 day waiting period which means we won't pay the Disability Benefit until you have been off work for a minimum of 30 days.

Redundancy Benefit (more details Section 3.2)

If you are covered for the Redundancy Benefit, you may be eligible to claim if you become involuntarily unemployed. This cover is designed to provide you with some income while you are looking for work.

The monthly benefit you can apply for can be up to 75% of your monthly income, (including regular bonuses and commissions and superannuation), up to a maximum of $4,000 (see also Section 3.6).

The maximum benefit period for any one claim is 3 months.

Your policy has a 30 day waiting period which means we won't pay the Redundancy Benefit until you have been off work for a minimum of 30 days.

Eligibility to claim under the Redundancy Benefit starts 6 months after the policy commencement date. This is called the no claim period.

Claims (more details Section 12)

If you make a claim on the Disability Benefit or Redundancy Benefit, you will need to provide evidence of your health, employment and income. It's important to know:

We are unable to pay more than 75% of your annual earnings so you should make sure that your insured monthly benefit is never more than this amount.

If you receive any other kind of insurance or compensation for your sickness or injury, we may reduce your Disability Benefit.

Summary of Benefits

	Disability Benefit	Redundancy Benefit
Age at application (Section 1)	18-60 (inclusive)

Maximum sum insured (Sections 3.8)	$10,000/month (plus indexation)	$4,000/month (plus indexation)
No claim period (Section 3.2)	No	6 months
Waiting period (Sections 3.8)	30 days
Maximum benefit period (Sections 3.1 and 3.2)	Choose 1 or 2 years	3 months
Expiry age (Section 5)	65th birthday	65th birthday
Premium Pause Benefit (Section 3.3)	Yes

Now that you know the key facts, read on to learn more detail about your cover and other benefits available on your Income Protection policy.

1.0 Who can apply?

When you apply for AAMI Income Protection, you can choose to be covered for the Disability Benefit only, or you can also select the optional Redundancy Benefit.

You can apply for AAMI Income Protection if you:

- are aged between 18 and 60 (inclusive);
- are an Australian or New Zealand citizen or permanent resident of Australia;
- are working at least 20 hours per week in your gainful occupation averaged over the last 3 consecutive months immediately prior to your policy commencement date; and
- received this PDS in Australia.

When applying for the Disability Benefit we consider various factors (such as your health and occupational duties) when making a decision about whether to accept or decline your application for insurance. No medical tests are required when you apply. We will use the information provided by you in your application to assess whether cover may be subject to special conditions that apply to your policy.

Once your application is accepted by us and we receive correct payment details, you will be covered for the benefits listed on your schedule 24 hours a day, 365 days a year as long as your policy remains active and subject to the terms and conditions of your policy.

AAMI Income Protection is a single life policy only. As the sole owner of the policy, you will also be the only insured person.

Where we agree, you may apply for the Redundancy Benefit at a date after you first commence this policy.

2.0 Your cooling off period

You have 30 days from the date you first commence this policy to check that this insurance meets your needs. This is the cooling off period.

If you wish, you can cancel your policy during the cooling off period by contacting us. If you notify us verbally, you will need to answer certain questions to confirm your identity. Provided you have not made a claim, you will receive a full refund of any money you have paid.

3.0 What we cover

This section explains the benefits available under AAMI Income Protection.

3.1 Disability Benefit

When do we pay the disability benefit?

The monthly benefit will be payable, from the end of the waiting period, if solely due to sickness or injury you:

- are unable to perform all the important income producing duties of your primary occupation;
- are not working, whether remunerated or not (including volunteering);
- are under regular care, treatment and following the advice of, a medical practitioner; and
- continue to be disabled.

You must have been disabled for the entire waiting period and not working in any occupation (whether remunerated or not) during this time.

Where the monthly benefit is payable for less than a month, payments will be calculated as 1/30th of the monthly benefit for each day you are disabled.

Unless cover ceases earlier (please refer to Section 5 When cover stops), monthly benefit payments will cease on the earliest of the following:

- your benefit period ends;
- you are no longer disabled;
- your 65th birthday; or
- you die.

There are some circumstances when we will not pay, please see Section 6 When we will not pay.

What happens if you are on leave or unemployed at the time of your disability?

If you have been unemployed or on leave such as; annual, long service, parental, sabbatical or leave of absence for less than 12 months at the date of your disability, your annual earnings will be calculated based on the 12 consecutive months immediately prior to commencing your leave.

If you have been unemployed or on leave such as; annual, long service, parental, sabbatical or leave of absence for more than 12 months at the date of your disability, the monthly benefit will not be payable.

What happens if you are overseas at the time of your disability?

If you are overseas at the date of your disability or at any time while you are disabled, your monthly benefit will only be payable for a maximum of 2 months while you are overseas, but will recommence when you return to Australia as long as you are still disabled and an event has not occurred that ceases payment of your monthly benefit (other than being overseas).

Benefit limitations

Income Protection replaces up to 75% of your monthly income which has ceased because of your disability, however there are some circumstances when the monthly benefit payable to you may be altered or reduced.

The monthly benefit amount payable to you will be recalculated if, in relation to the sickness or injury which caused your disability, you receive 'other payments' by way of:

- other disability, group, sickness or accident insurance cover, including a mortgage replacement policy or through a superannuation fund;
- workers' compensation schemes;
- accident compensation schemes; or
- other statutory insurances payable for loss of income.

If any of the other payments listed above are received in the form of a lump sum in compensation for loss of earnings, we will convert that part of the compensation to income on the basis of 1% of the loss of earnings component and reduce the monthly benefit amount payable to you by that component.

In the event of a claim, the monthly benefit amount payable will be the lesser of:

- 75% of your annual earnings (reduced by any 'other payments'); and
- the monthly benefit.

Recurring disability

If you suffer from the same or related sickness or injury within 6 months of your last monthly benefit being payable, your cover is still active, and you continue to be disabled, we will consider your disablement as recurring and therefore will recommence benefit payments without applying a new waiting period.

Any benefit payments will be added to the remaining benefit period to ensure the maximum payment under the benefit period is not exceeded.

If you do not make a full recovery, no monthly benefit will be payable for the same or related sickness or injury for which the previous claim was paid in full; i.e. for the entire benefit period.

Choosing your disability monthly benefit

You can choose to insure up to 75% of your monthly income; from as little as $1,000 per month, up to $10,000 per month. The monthly benefit that applies to you will be stated in your schedule.

What is your monthly income?

The monthly income which you can insure under AAMI Income Protection is the income you earn each month from your own personal exertion. This is your total remuneration package and includes:

- salary;
- wages;
- reportable fringe benefits;
- regular commissions;
- regular bonuses;
- overtime payments; and
- superannuation contributions.

If you are self-employed and have an ownership interest in the business which is operating as a sole trader or under a partnership, company and/or trust structure (including if you are an employee of your own company or trust), the monthly income you can insure is your share of the net income before tax of the business (your share of business income less business expenses), due directly to your personal exertion. Business expenses include (but are not limited to) motor vehicle expenses and depreciation.

The monthly income you can insure does not include:

- income that you will continue to receive from your business, even if you are unable to work, including any ongoing profit generated by other employees of the business;

- other unearned income such as dividends, interest, rental income or proceeds from the sale of assets;
- or

- on-going trailing commission or royalties.

Your benefit period

The benefit period is the maximum period of time during which we will pay your monthly benefit while you are disabled for the same or related sickness or injury. When you apply, you can choose from 1 or 2 years. The benefit period that applies to you will be stated on your schedule.

3.2 Redundancy Benefit

You are only covered for the Redundancy Benefit if it is shown on your schedule.

The Redundancy Benefit is designed to provide a monthly benefit to assist if you become involuntarily unemployed.

Eligibility to claim under the Redundancy Benefit starts 6 months after the policy commencement date – the first 6 months is called the no claim period for this benefit. If you become involuntarily unemployed during the no claim period, you will not be eligible to claim under the Redundancy Benefit. When the Redundancy Benefit is renewed, the 6 month no claim period does not start again.

After the no claim period has ended, the monthly benefit will be payable from the end of the waiting period if you become involuntarily unemployed as a result of either:

- involuntary redundancy; or

- dismissal by no choice of your own; or

- a business you have a beneficial interest in is placed into insolvency administration; or

- your fixed term employment contract of 12 months or more ceasing prior to the agreed termination date by no choice of your own;

and you continue to be unemployed after the waiting period.

In the event of a claim, the monthly benefit amount payable will be the lesser of:

- 75% of your annual earnings; or

- the monthly benefit.

What happens if you are on leave when you become involuntarily unemployed?

If you have been on leave such as; annual, long service, parental, sabbatical or leave of absence for less than 12 months at the date of your involuntary unemployment, your annual earnings will be calculated based on the 12 consecutive months immediately prior to commencing your leave.

If you have been on leave such as; annual, long service, parental, sabbatical or leave of absence for 12 months or more at the date of your involuntary unemployment, the monthly benefit will not be payable.

Your redundancy benefit period

The maximum benefit period is 3 months for any one claim while you remain unemployed. The total maximum benefit claimable for the same insured person is 12 months; for example, 4 lots of 3 months.

If the monthly benefit is payable for less than a month, payments will be calculated as 1/30th of the monthly benefit for each day you are unemployed.

Unless cover ceases earlier (Please refer to Section 5 When cover stops, for when the Redundancy Benefit under this policy will cease) ongoing monthly benefit payments will cease when:

- you return to work;
- you are no longer actively seeking employment;
- your benefit period ends;
- your 65th birthday; or
- you die.

There are some circumstances when we will not pay the Redundancy Benefit, please see Section 6 When we will not pay.

Choosing your redundancy monthly benefit

Your monthly benefit for the Redundancy Benefit does not need to be the same as your Disability Benefit. You can choose to insure up to 75% of your monthly income; from as little as $1,000 per month, up to $4,000 per month. The monthly benefit that applies to you will be stated on your schedule and each year on your renewal notice.

3.3 Premium Pause Benefit

To help with affordability, the Premium Pause Benefit allows you to stop paying premiums for up to 3 months each year you hold your policy.

During this time, your policy continues (subject to your policy also continuing to be renewed if you have the Redundancy Benefit) but no cover will be provided by your policy for the Disability Benefit or the Redundancy Benefit. This means that any sickness, injury or notice of involuntary unemployment that occurs during the period of the Premium Pause Benefit will not be covered.

You must contact us to activate the Premium Pause Benefit. Premiums must have been paid for the previous 9 consecutive months and the policy must have no outstanding premium payable at the time of the request.

After the Premium Pause Benefit has ended and premiums have recommenced, you will be eligible for all the benefits you had selected under the policy, in accordance with their terms.

The Premium Pause Benefit cannot be applied while you are on claim or during your waiting period.

3.4 Waiver of Premium Benefit

If we are paying you a monthly benefit while you are either disabled or involuntarily unemployed, we will waive your Income Protection premiums for the period while you are on claim.

The Waiver of Premium Benefit does not apply to premiums paid during the waiting period. Unless cover ceases earlier (please refer to Section 5 When does cover stop?) the Waiver of Premium Benefit will end on the earliest of:

- the end of your benefit period;

- the date you are no longer disabled;
- the date you are no longer unemployed;
- the date you are no longer actively seeking employment; or
- the date your policy ends.

While you are receiving the Waiver of Premium Benefit you cannot apply for any increases to the benefits under your AAMI Income Protection policy.

3.5 Automatic Indexation Benefit

To help keep your insurance in line with your income, we will automatically increase your monthly benefit each year on your policy anniversary by the greater of the indexation factor or 5%. Unless you decline the increase, we will recalculate your premium to reflect the increase as a result of the indexation factor (and your age for the Disability Benefit) and we will advise you of your new premium prior to your policy anniversary.

The increase will not apply if your policy anniversary occurs while you are receiving monthly benefit payments from us under this policy.

You can ask us not to apply the indexation factor to your monthly benefit. If you request this, your monthly benefit will not change, however your premium will generally still change each year, such as increasing because of age.

Unless cover ceases earlier (please refer to Section 5 When cover stops), the Automatic Indexation Benefit stops on your 65th birthday.

Given AAMI Income Protection replaces up to 75% of your annual earnings, you need to check that the increase to your monthly benefit, after the indexation factor has been applied, does not result in your cover exceeding this maximum.

Refer to Benefit limitations in Section 3.1.

3.6 Maximum benefit

The most we will pay under your AAMI Income Protection policy is the monthly benefit. The maximum amount we will pay across all Income Protection policies issued by us for the same insured person is:

$10,000 per month for the Disability Benefit; and $4,000 per month for the Redundancy Benefit; plus indexation - please refer to Section 3.5 Automatic Indexation Benefit.

3.7 Concurrent benefits

We will only pay one benefit at a time under your Income Protection policy. If you are eligible to receive both benefits (Disability and Redundancy Benefits) under this policy at the same time, we will pay the benefit with the highest monthly benefit.

For example, if your Disability Benefit is $4,000 per month and your Redundancy Benefit is $3,000 per month and you are eligible to receive benefits under Disability and Redundancy Benefits at the same time, we will pay the higher monthly benefit, in this case your $4,000 Disability Benefit.

If the monthly benefits are equal, we will pay the benefit with the longest benefit period, that being the Disability Benefit, while you continue to be disabled.

3.8 Waiting period

Your Income Protection policy has a 30 day waiting period. The waiting period is the time that must elapse before a monthly benefit can start to be paid.

If you are eligible to be paid a benefit, payments are made monthly in arrears after the end of the waiting period. This means your first benefit payment would be 60 days after the start of the waiting period.

No benefit will be paid during the waiting period.

For the Disability Benefit, the waiting period starts when both of the following events have occurred:

- you first consult a medical practitioner for the sickness or injury giving rise to your claim; and
- you cease all work due to that sickness or injury.

You must be disabled for the entire waiting period.

For the Redundancy Benefit, the waiting period starts when both of the following events have occurred:

- you become involuntarily unemployed; and
- you are actively seeking employment.

You must have been not working and actively seeking employment for the entire waiting period.

No benefit will be paid during the waiting period. In addition to the waiting period, there is also a no claim period applicable to the Redundancy Benefit. For further details see Section 3.2 Redundancy Benefit.

4.0 When cover starts

As long as you satisfy the eligibility requirements (please refer to Section 1 Who can apply?) cover will commence on the date we accept your application and receive correct payment details. This date will be shown on your schedule as your policy commencement date.

Once we accept your application for cover under AAMI Income Protection, we will send you a schedule confirming our acceptance and your policy commencement date. If you take out the Redundancy Benefit after you first start your policy, your Redundancy Benefit may have a different policy commencement date to the remainder of your policy

5.0 When cover stops

All cover) will stop under this policy on the earliest of the following events:

- your 65th birthday;
- your request to cancel the policy;
- the date your policy is cancelled due to the non-payment of outstanding premiums;
- the date you retire; or
- the date of your death.

In addition to the above, cover under the Redundancy Benefit will also stop on the earlier of:

- the date you have been paid the benefit for a total of 12 months; or
- the date you the insurer chooses not to renew this benefit.

All benefit payments will cease when cover stops.

We will not consider any claim, unless the event giving rise to the claim occurred while your policy was still active. For the Redundancy Benefit, a no claim period applies (see Section 3.2). We may also cancel this policy on any grounds permitted under relevant law by telling you in writing.

If you have the Redundancy Benefit, we will advise you prior to each policy anniversary whether we will:

- offer renewal of the Redundancy Benefit;
- offer to renew the Redundancy Benefit but on different terms and conditions; or
- not renew the Redundancy Benefit.

If we offer renewal and your premium payment continues, the Redundancy Benefit will continue automatically for a further one (1) year at each policy anniversary. Payment of your next premium payment is deemed to be acceptance of an offer of renewal for that year. When the Redundancy Benefit is renewed, the 6 month no claim period does not start again.

6.0 When we will not pay

Disability Benefit

We will not pay the Disability Benefit, refund or waive any premiums under your policy if the event giving rise to the claim, directly or indirectly, is as a result of:

- your intentional self inflicted act;
- you working in an occupation:
 - at heights above 15 metres; or
 - underground in the mining industry;
- you attempting to engage in or engaging in:
 - aviation or aerial pursuit activities other than as a fare paying passenger on a commercial airline on regular scheduled flights; riding on or driving in any self-propelled vehicle engaged in any race, speed or reliability trial on any waterway, racing course, speedway or racing track;

mountaineering, abseiling, rock climbing or canyoning;

diving to a depth of 45 metres or more, pothole diving, wreck diving or diving in a cave.

the use of drugs, other than medication prescribed by a medical practitioner or health professional and taken as directed;

being under the influence of alcohol, where your blood alcohol content is over the prescribed legal limit for driving;

any mental disorder or mental illness;

pregnancy, miscarriage or childbirth, unless disability continues for more than 3 months from the later of the date the pregnancy finishes and the disablement starts (the later date being the date we will consider your disablement to have started); or you engaging in any criminal activity.

No Disability Benefit will be payable for any period you are incarcerated.

Please also refer to benefit limitations in Section 3.1.

Redundancy Benefit

We will not pay the Redundancy Benefit or refund any premium if loss of work was caused directly or indirectly by:

- your intentional self-inflicted act ;
- a war or an act of war, whether or not war has been declared;
- the influence of alcohol or drugs other than proper use of drugs prescribed by a medical practitioner or health professional;
- voluntary resignation, retirement or abandonment of employment;
- misconduct, dishonesty or criminal activities;
- poor performance as documented by your employer, in carrying out your occupation;
- any strike or labour disturbance in which you or your employer is involved;
- the loss, currency or maintenance of any licence, authorisation or permit required to operate the business, including loss of drivers licence, trade or professional certification;
- the seasonal nature of your employment;
- the cessation of a fixed term contract of employment on or after the agreed termination date;
- pregnancy, miscarriage or childbirth;
- unemployment due to sickness or injury; or
- elective surgery.

We will also not pay a benefit or refund any premium if:

you were notified in writing, verbally or otherwise, of impending involuntary unemployment prior to the policy commencement date;

your employer has announced to the public, or publicised in the media, before the policy commencement date, an intention to reduce staff numbers by way of redundancy;

you have not been in employment or self-employed with an Australian registered business for a continuous period of 3 months prior to policy commencement date;

you have not been working at least an average of 20 hours per week for the last 3 consecutive months immediately prior to your involuntary unemployment;

you are involuntarily unemployed during the no claim period;

you are continuing work outside of Australia;

you are no longer registered as being unemployed with Centrelink or equivalent Australian government authority or seeking employment via a recognised Australian recruitment or personnel agency; or you are incarcerated.

7.0 Your premium

Your premium pays for your cover, government fees and charges and administration costs.

The premium you pay is determined by multiplying your monthly benefit by the applicable premium rate (including any loading that may apply). Your premium rate for the Disability Benefit is dependent on the following factors: your age, gender, smoking status, benefit period, and your occupation. Your premium for the Redundancy Benefit is dependent on your monthly benefit.

Your premium for the Disability Benefit will not change for 12 months from your policy commencement date. After this period, your premium will generally increase with age and as a result of the Automatic Indexation Benefit explained in Section 3.5. We can also change the premium rate for all policies of the same kind by providing you with at least 30 days' written notice. You will be charged the new premium from your next policy anniversary. For the Redundancy Benefit, any change to your premium for the next 12 months will be shown on your renewal notice.

If you need to change your occupation or smoking status, please contact us.

Premiums received in relation to the Disability Benefit are paid into our No. 1 Statutory fund. A policy issued in relation to AAMI Income Protection does not participate in any surplus arising in our statutory funds.

Premiums are subject to commonwealth and state taxes and/or charges, including GST and stamp duty. The amount of these taxes and/or charges will be shown on your policy schedule and renewal notices.

For a quote, please contact us on 13 22 44 or go to www.aami.com.au/income.

7.1 Are you eligible for a discount?

Large Monthly Benefit Discount

With the Large Monthly Benefit Discount, the higher the monthly benefit you choose, the larger the discount that applies to the premium for your Disability Benefit. The following table shows how the discounts will be applied:

Monthly Disability Benefit range	Premium Discount
$1,000 - $2,499	Nil
$2,500 - $4,999	10%
$5,000 - $6,999	20%
$7,000 - $9,999	25%
$10,000 or above	30%

7.2 Paying your premium

You can choose to pay your premium monthly or annually from the financial institution or credit card you nominate and you have up to 14 days (or 30 days if you pay monthly) from the date each premium is due to pay your premium. If you do not pay a premium within this period, we will send a notice to you at the address last advised to us specifying the date we will cancel the policy without any refund of premium. We will not be liable for any claims after the date of cancellation.

If we cancel your policy due to non-payment of premiums, you can request that your policy be reinstated by contacting us within 30 days of the policy's cancellation date. In order for us to consider your reinstatement, we may ask for information relating to (but not limited to) your health and occupation and all outstanding premiums must be paid by you.

Reinstatements are not guaranteed and, if approved, will be confirmed in writing.

8.0 Taxation

The tax treatment of Income Protection will depend on your individual circumstances. If you are working, premiums are usually tax deductible and any benefit payments received are generally assessable for tax purposes.

These comments are a guide only and do not take into account changes in taxation laws or your particular circumstances. Please ask your tax adviser or the Australian Taxation Office about your own circumstances.

GST does not apply to the Disability Benefit but it does to the Redundancy Benefit. If tax laws are altered, we reserve the right to increase premiums to reflect any applicable GST or any other Government taxes and charges that may be introduced. Any increase would be in accordance with our legal obligations.

9.0 Risks

You should be aware of the risks involved before buying any insurance policy. Please read this PDS carefully before making any decision regarding this policy or the extent of cover you require. Some of the risks associated with holding this insurance policy include:

- your policy may not suit your needs;
- your monthly benefit may be insufficient or excessive;
- a monthly benefit may not be paid in the event of a claim if an exclusion applies;

a monthly benefit may not be paid if in the event of a claim, you failed to disclose all information as part of the application process; and the monthly Disability Benefit may be reduced or not payable at all if in the event of a claim, you are receiving 'other payments' (see Section 3.1).

It's important that the policy meets your needs both now and in the future. You may need to seek assistance from a financial adviser if the terms are not consistent with your needs or do not suit your personal circumstances.

10.0 How can I apply?

Contact us on 13 22 44 between 8am and 6pm (AEST) and talk to one of our consultants.

Visit www.aami.com.au/income and complete an online application.

However you choose to complete your application for AAMI Income Protection, you won't be required to undergo any blood tests or medical examinations. We will assess your occupation and health based on the information you provide to us in your application.

11.0 How to contact us

11.1 Administration queries and changes

If you have any questions about your policy or you would like to make any changes to your policy, including a change to your address or to your payment type, please contact us (please refer to the back page for contact details). A change to this policy will only apply if we confirm the change in writing. You can apply to increase or decrease your monthly benefit on an existing policy by contacting us.

If you wish to apply for an increase to your existing monthly benefit, the maximum monthly benefit limits will apply (please refer to Section 3 What we cover).

If you add the Redundancy Benefit to your policy after your policy first starts, the period of cover for the Redundancy Benefit will be aligned with the policy anniversary that applies to the remainder of your policy.

During the life of this policy, you cannot assign ownership of this policy to any other person or party.

11.2 Complaints resolution

If you have a complaint about this product or our services, you can contact the Customer Relations at lifecustomerrelations@suncorp.com.au or through the contact us details found on the back page.

If you are dissatisfied with our decision or the way we handled your complaint, you can also contact the Financial Ombudsman Service Limited (ABN 67 131 124 448) (FOS). FOS is an external dispute resolution scheme that provides free services to customers, and is a totally independent and impartial body that will deal with your complaint directly, or follow up the matter on your behalf in accordance with its terms of reference.

You can contact FOS by:

12.0 Claims

If you need to make a claim, you or your legal personal representative can contact us on 13 22 44, as soon as reasonably possible after the event giving rise to the claim and we will provide a claim pack for completion and return to our office. To claim a benefit, we require claim documentation in support of benefit entitlement. We may ask for additional information to ensure that the terms and conditions of the policy as set out in this PDS are satisfied.

Payment of a benefit is subject to our acceptance of your claim. Any monthly benefit payable will be payable directly to you. All benefit payments are paid in Australian currency.

We must be notified of any claim as soon as reasonably possible. We may refuse or reduce the monthly benefit payable for a claim if we are disadvantaged by any delay in notifying us of a claim.

12.1 Claim documentation

To make a claim, the following documentation will be required:

Disability Benefit

an initial claim form completed by you and your medical practitioner which will include proof of the event or condition for which the claim is being made and when it occurred; when the claim is ongoing, a monthly claim form completed by you and your medical practitioner;

a signed Medicare Australia authority;

details of any hazardous activities;

payslips or employer statement to confirm regular hours of work and terms of employment.

Redundancy Benefit

an initial claim form completed by you which will include details of your involuntary unemployment for which the claim is being made and when it occurred;

proof of your unemployment (Separation Certificate, Letter of Redundancy, letter of Termination of Contract); proof of you actively seeking employment (registration with Centrelink or a recognised Australian recruitment or personnel agency); and if you were self employed proof that your business has ceased to operate due to actual insolvency (ASIC Deregistration, Wind up Court Order, appointment of an insolvency administrator, Notice of Bankruptcy, Notice of Liquidation); or if you were self employed a letter from your accountant detailing the date and reason the business has ceased to operate due to insolvency, with supporting evidence such as last Business Activity Statement (BAS).

For both the Disability Benefit and the Redundancy Benefit

- certified proof of your identity and age (birth certificate, driver's licence or passport);
- authorisation of your legal representative and certified copy of Power of Attorney (if this applies);
- proof of your employment and occupational details if necessary; and
- any financial statements we reasonably require to assess your claim.

You or your legal personal representative will be required to pay for the cost of satisfying the above claim requirements, unless we notify you otherwise.

You must submit, at our expense, to any medical examination conducted by a medical practitioner or other health professional appointed by us as we deem necessary. At our expense, we may appoint an accountant of our choice to verify your income and/or expenses and this may involve a financial audit of your business or your financial statements. You are required to comply with the audit requirements if we arrange a financial audit to be conducted.

Payment of benefits under this policy will be subject to relevant legislative requirements being adhered to and, depending upon individual circumstances, additional information may be required by us.

To assess your claim promptly, we need to ensure the information provided to us at the time of application is correct, for example your age and smoking status. If we have received any false information, we may refuse the claim, adjust the premiums paid by you or the monthly benefit payable by us.

We will only consider a claim if the event giving rise to the claim occurred while your policy was active. For the Redundancy Benefit, a no claim period applies, see Section 3.2.

13.0 Privacy statement

Your privacy is important

Suncorp and AAI are members of the Suncorp Group, which we'll refer to simply as "the Group". In this Privacy Statement all references to "We/Us/Our" mean Suncorp and AAI.

Why do we collect personal information?

Personal information is information or an opinion about an identified individual or an individual who is reasonably identifiable. We collect personal information so that we can:

- identify you and conduct appropriate checks;
- understand your requirements and set up, administer and manage our products and services;
- determine eligibility for a family discount where applicable;
- manage and administer underwriting and claims, including any investigation and assessment of claims;
- manage, train and develop our employees and representatives;
- manage complaints and disputes, and report to dispute resolution bodies; and get a better understanding of you, your needs, your behaviours and how you interact with us, so we can engage in product and service research, development and business strategy including managing the delivery of our services and products via the ways we communicate with you.

What happens if you don't give us your personal information?

If we ask for your personal information and you don't give it to us, we may not be able to provide you with any, some, or all of the features of our products or services.

How we handle your personal information

We collect your personal information directly from you and, in some cases, from other people or organisations. We also provide your personal information to other related companies in the Group, and they may disclose or use your personal information for the purposes described in 'Why do we collect personal information?' in relation to products and services they may provide to you. They may also use your personal information to help them provide products and services to other customers.

Under various laws, we may be authorised or required to collect your personal information. These laws include the, Corporations Act 2001, Autonomous Sanctions Act 2011, Income Tax Assessment Act 1997, Income Tax Assessment Act 1936, Income Tax Regulations 1936, Tax Administration Act 1953, Tax Administration Regulations 1976, A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 2001; Corporations Act 2001 and Life Insurance Act 1995 as those Acts are amended and any associated regulations. From time to time other Acts may require, or authorise us to collect your personal information.

We will use and disclose your personal information for the purposes we collected it as well as purposes that are related, where you would reasonably expect us to. We may disclose your personal information to and/or collect your personal information from:

- other companies within the Group and other trading divisions or departments within the same company (please see our Privacy Policy for a list of brands/companies);

- hospitals and medical, health or wellbeing professionals;

- other insurers, reinsurers, insurance investigators and claims or insurance reference services, loss assessors, financiers;

- a third party that we've contracted to provide financial services, financial products or administrative services – for example:

 - information technology providers,

 - print/mail/digital service providers,

 - marketing agencies and other marketing services,

 - imaging and document management services,

- a third party claimant or witnesses in a claim;

- third parties authorised by you;

- policy or product holders or others who are authorised or noted on the policy as having a legal interest, including where you are an insured person but not the policy or product holder;

- the Financial Ombudsman Service or any other external dispute resolution body;

legal and any other professional advisers or consultants such as accountants;

customer, product, business or strategic research and development organisations;

data warehouse, strategic learning organisations, data partners, analytic consultants;

social media and other virtual communities and networks where people create, share or exchange information;

government, statutory or regulatory bodies and enforcement bodies; and any of our Group joint ventures where authorised or required.

We'll use a variety of methods to collect your personal information from, and disclose your personal information to these persons and organisations, including written forms, telephone calls and via electronic delivery. We may collect and disclose your personal information to these persons and organisations during the information life cycle, regularly, or on an ad hoc basis, depending on the purpose of collection.

Overseas Disclosure

Sometimes, we provide your personal information to – or get personal information about you from – persons located overseas, for the same purposes as in 'Why do we collect personal information?'

The countries we usually disclose your personal information to have been outlined on our website suncorpgroup.com.au/privacy or you can give us a call and we will provide you a copy.

From time to time, we may need to disclose your personal information to, and collect your personal information from, other countries not on this list. Nevertheless, we will always disclose and collect your personal information in accordance with privacy laws.

Your personal information and our marketing practices

Every now and then, we and any related companies that use the AAMI brand might let you know – including via mail, SMS, email, telephone or online – about news, special offers, products and services that you might be interested in. We will engage in marketing unless you tell us otherwise. You can contact us to update your marketing preferences at any time.

In order to carry out our direct marketing we collect your personal information from and disclose it to others that provide us with specialised data matching, trending or analytical services, as well as general marketing services (you can see the full list of persons and organisations under ‘How we handle your personal information’). We may also collect your personal information for marketing through competitions.

We, and other people who provide us with services, may combine the personal information collected from you or others, with the information we, or companies in our Group, or our service providers already hold about you. We may also use online targeted marketing, data and audience matching and market segmentation to improve advertising relevance to you.

How to access and correct your personal information or make a complaint

You have the right to access and correct your personal information held by us and you can find information about how to do this in the Suncorp Group Privacy Policy.

The Policy also includes information about how you can complain about a breach of the Australian Privacy Principles and how we'll deal with such a complaint. You can get a copy of the Suncorp Group Privacy Policy. Please use the contact detail in Contact Us.

14.0 Your Duty of Disclosure

Life Insurance – Disability Benefit

Before you enter into a contract of life insurance with us, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to us every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to our decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

Your duty, however, does not require disclosure of a matter:

that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by us;
that is of common knowledge;
that we know, or in the ordinary course of our business, ought to know; or as to which compliance with your duty is waived by us.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure and we would not have entered into the contract if the failure had not occurred, we may avoid the contract within 3 years of entering into it.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may avoid the contract at any time.

We may elect not to avoid your contract but to vary it by:

reducing the sum insured in accordance with a formula that takes into account the premium that would have been payable if you had complied with your duty of disclosure; or placing us in the position in which we would have been in if you had complied with your duty of disclosure.

The options to vary the contract are available to us while the contract remains in force.

This duty continues to apply until the insurer notifies you that the risk has been accepted. It also applies when you extend, vary or reinstate a contract of life insurance.

General Insurance – Redundancy Benefit

Before you enter into a general insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or

- is common knowledge; or

- we know or should know as an insurer; or

- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

15.0 What do we mean by that?

Where any words appear in this PDS, whether the first letter is in upper or lower case, their meanings are listed below.

Where applicable, with respect to the definitions, singular includes the plural and vice versa.

AAI means AAI Limited ABN 48 005 297 807 AFSL 230859.

Actively seeking employment means registered as being unemployed with Centrelink or equivalent Australian government authority and/or seeking employment via a recognised Australian recruitment or personnel agency.

Annual earnings means your average monthly income during the 12 consecutive months immediately before the start of your disablement or the start of your involuntary unemployment.

Benefit means the amount payable under the Redundancy Benefit or Disability Benefit.

Benefit period means the maximum period of time during which a payment will be paid.

Criminal activity means any crime for which you are convicted where you could receive a custodial sentence, whether or not you do in fact receive a custodial sentence for that crime.

Disabled, Disablement or Disability means that solely due to sickness or injury you are:

- unable to perform all the important income producing duties of your primary occupation;
- not working whether remunerated or not, including volunteering; and under the care, treatment and following the advice of a medical practitioner.

Elective surgery means cosmetic surgery to alter or improve your appearance unless recommended by a medical practitioner to improve your physical health related to an underlying sickness or injury.

Expiry date means the date your policy ends as stated on your schedule or, in relation to the Redundancy Benefit (if applicable), on the renewal notice we send you.

Full recovery means for a continuous period of 6 months, you have returned to work and you have:

- performed all the important income producing duties of your primary occupation;

- not been suffering from the sickness or injury you were previously claiming for;

- not required or received advice, care or treatment from a medical practitioner for the sickness or injury you were previously claiming for; and

- not been receiving Disability Benefit payments.

Gainful occupation means the occupation in which you work as an employee for a salary, wages or commission, or the occupation in which you are self-employed, working in a business or professional practice in a way that is capable of generating income for the business or professional practice.

Health professional means an individual that provides preventive, curative or rehabilitation services (e.g. physiotherapist or chiropractor). The health professional cannot be you or an immediate member of your family (i.e. partner, parents, siblings or children).

Important income producing duties means those duties which could reasonably be considered primarily essential to producing your monthly income.

Indexation factor means the percentage change in the consumer price index (CPI) which is the weighted average of the 8 Australian capital cities combined as published by the Australian Bureau of Statistics or any body which succeeds it and in respect of the 12 month period finishing on 30 September.

The indexation factor will be applied from 1 March the following year, subject to the terms and conditions of your policy. If the CPI is not published by this date, the indexation factor will be calculated upon a retail price index which we consider most nearly replaces it.

Injury means physical damage to your body which occurs as a result of violent, external and visible means while this policy is active.

Insured person means the person who has been accepted by us and is listed on your schedule as the insured person under the policy. The insured person is also the policy owner.

Involuntarily unemployed or involuntary unemployment means:

if you are an employee or you are self-employed, you have been terminated from your gainful occupation; and if you are self-employed, your business has ceased trading as a direct result of you not being able to meet the financial commitments of your business; or your fixed term employment contract of 12 months or greater ceasing prior to the agreed termination date by no choice of your own.

Legal personal representative means any person(s) who is authorised by law to act on your behalf.

Medical practitioner means a doctor who is legally qualified and properly registered in Australia. The doctor cannot be you or an immediate member of your family (i.e. partner, parents, siblings or children).

If practising outside Australia, the medical practitioner must have qualifications equivalent to Australian Standards and approved by us.

A medical practitioner could be your general practitioner or treating medical specialist.

Mental disorder or mental illness means any fatigue disorder, motivational disorder or mental health disorder as defined in the American Psychiatric Association, Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorder, Volume 5 (or as amended). These include but are not limited to depressive disorders, anxiety disorders, adjustment disorders, somatoform disorders, psychotic disorders, bipolar disorders, personality disorders, Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder or any complications thereof.

Monthly benefit means the amount stated in the schedule as varied under this policy by agreement with us (for example if you apply for a decrease or through increases under automatic indexation). Where we have agreed to change the monthly benefit, the new monthly benefit will be as stated in our latest correspondence to you.

Monthly income means the income earned each month by you from your own personal exertion. Please refer to Section 3.1 for what is and isn't included.

No claim period means 6 months from the policy commencement date; the amount of time you must hold the Redundancy Benefit before becoming eligible to claim.

Policy means your Income Protection cover, which consists of this Product Disclosure Statement, the schedule, any endorsement, and the information provided in your application.

Policy anniversary means the anniversary of your policy commencement date (or the earlier of your policy commencement dates, if applicable).

Policy commencement date means the date cover first starts, as shown on your schedule. The policy commencement date in relation to the Redundancy Benefit is the date the cover first starts as shown on your schedule or, if the Redundancy Benefit is added after the date cover first starts, then the policy commencement date for the Redundancy Benefit is that later date the Redundancy Benefit started as shown on the endorsement we will send you.

Policy owner means the person listed on the schedule as the owner of this policy.

Premium means the amount you pay us for the insurance.

Primary occupation means the occupation in which you were predominantly engaged immediately prior to you becoming disabled or involuntarily unemployed. If you were unemployed at the time of disablement, primary occupation means the occupation in which you were predominantly engaged immediately prior to unemployment.

Schedule means the latest document issued by us which shows important information about your policy, including your policy number, your premium, any special conditions (if applicable), your policy commencement date and your expiry date. If there are any changes to your policy, we will confirm the change to you in writing and send you an endorsement which forms part of your schedule.

Sickness means an illness or disease you suffer while this policy is active.

Suncorp means Suncorp Life & Superannuation Limited, ABN 87 073 979 530 AFSL 229880

Waiting period means the period of time that must elapse before a monthly benefit can be paid.

War or an act of war means armed aggression by a country resisted by another country or organisation.

We, us and our means Suncorp or AAI (whichever is appropriate).

You and your means the policy owner, who is also the insured person, and who is shown on the schedule.
