The application and your cover

Who can apply?

You can apply for AAMI Accidental Death Insurance if you are aged between 18 and 75 (inclusive), you are an Australian citizen or permanent resident of Australia and you receive this PDS in Australia.

When you are covered

Once you apply and your application is accepted, you will be covered for the benefits outlined, on page 5, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. We guarantee to renew your policy every year until your 80th birthday, unless your cover stops earlier, please refer to 'When cover stops' on page 4.

When cover starts

As long as you satisfy the eligibility requirements (please refer to 'Who can apply?' on page 3) full cover under your AAMI Accidental Death Insurance policy will commence when we have accepted your application and received correct payment details.

If we accept your application for cover under AAMI Accidental Death Insurance, we will send you a schedule and policy document confirming our acceptance. These documents, together, set out the full terms and conditions of your insurance with us. Please read these documents carefully and store them in a safe place.

When cover stops

Once you reach your 80th birthday, your cover will stop. Cover will also stop under this policy on the earliest of the following events:

- you ask us to cancel the policy;
- the date your policy is cancelled due to non-payment of outstanding premiums; or
- the date you die.

If cover stops we will not consider any claim, unless the accident giving rise to the claim occurred before cover stopped.

Your cooling off period

You have 30 days from the policy commencement date to check that this insurance meets your needs. This is the cooling off period.

If you wish, you can cancel your policy during the cooling off period by contacting us and provided you have not made a claim, you will receive a refund in full of any money you have paid.

What we cover

AAMI Accidental Death Insurance is a single life policy only. As the sole owner of the policy, you will also be the only insured person.

Depending on the level of cover you think you need, you can apply for as little as $100,000 or as much as $500,000, in increments of $100,000.

The most we will pay under your AAMI Accidental Death Insurance is the sum insured. The maximum amount we will pay under the Accidental Death Benefit across all Accidental Death Insurance policies issued by us for the same insured person is $500,000 (plus indexation).

You are entitled to the following benefits under your policy:

Accidental Death Benefit

If you die as a result of an accident and death occurs within 365 days of that accident, we will pay the sum insured for your policy as a lump sum to your nominated beneficiaries (if applicable), otherwise to your estate.

Automatic Indexation Benefit

We will automatically increase your sum insured each year on your policy anniversary by the greater of the indexation factor or 5% to help keep your insurance in line with inflation. Unless you decline the increase, we will recalculate your premium to reflect the increase in your sum insured as a result of the indexation factor (and your age) and we will advise you of your new premium prior to your policy anniversary.

AAMI Rewards

Your 13th month free!

After you have paid your first 12 months' premium in full, we will waive the premium for your 13th month of cover. This means after your first policy anniversary:

- if you pay your premiums monthly, your account will not be debited for your 13th month of cover; or
- if you pay your premiums annually, your first renewal notice will show a reduced annual premium, representing 11 months' premium.

Full cover continues during the time that your premium is waived. Your policy and premium payment will continue as normal thereafter.

Financial Planning Benefit

If you have continuously held your policy for 3 years, your policy will be automatically upgraded to include the Financial Planning Benefit at your 3rd policy anniversary. Under this benefit, we will reimburse up to $2,000 for financial planning advice received from a licensed financial planner within 12 months of an accepted claim for the Accidental Death Benefit. This will allow your beneficiaries to best utilise the proceeds received. This benefit is only payable once per policy.

What we do not cover

We will not pay any benefit or refund any premiums if the accident giving rise to the claim, directly or indirectly is as a result of:

- your intentional self-inflicted act;
- you working in an occupation:
 - at heights above 15 metres;

underground in the mining industry;
while carrying a firearm;

and charges and administration costs.

Premium payment options

You can choose to pay your premium monthly or annually from the financial institution account or credit card you nominate and you have up to 30 days from the date each premium is due to pay your premium.

What happens if your premium is not paid?

If you do not pay a premium within this period, we will send a notice to you at the address last advised to us specifying the date we will cancel the policy without any refund of premium. We will not be liable for any claims after the date of cancellation.

If we cancel your policy due to non-payment of premiums, you can ask us to reinstate your policy up to 3 months after the date of cancellation. In order for us to process your application for reinstatement, all outstanding premiums must be paid by you. If your application for reinstatement is accepted, the exclusions explained on pages 6–7 will apply please refer to 'What we do not cover' on pages 6–7.

Premium guarantee

Your premium is guaranteed not to change for 12 months from your policy commencement date. After this period, your premium may increase with age and increase as a result of the Automatic Indexation Benefit (explained on page 5). We can also change the premium rate for all policies of the same kind by providing you with at least 30 days' written notice. You will be charged the new premium from your next policy anniversary.

Important general information for you

Nominating beneficiaries

The distribution of your estate on your death can take time and could be delayed depending on the circumstances. To help avoid any potential delay in the payment of your Accidental Death Benefit, you can nominate up to 5 beneficiaries (for example your spouse or children) to receive the proceeds of your policy. Once your application has been accepted by us, we will send you a Nomination of Beneficiaries form which you may choose to complete. The form and your policy will set out the terms that apply to your nomination including who you can nominate and in what proportions.

How to make changes to your policy

If you would like to make any changes to your policy, for example to adjust your sum insured, change your address or your payment type, please contact us. We will confirm in writing any changes to your policy, including any impact the change may have to your premium.

Risks

You should be aware of the risks involved before buying any life insurance policy. Some of the risks associated with holding this life insurance policy include:

- your policy may not suit your needs;
- your level of cover may be insufficient; or
- a benefit may not be paid if in the event of a claim, an exclusion applies.

It's important that the policy meets your needs both now and in the future. You may need to seek assistance from an adviser if the terms are not consistent with your needs or do not suit your personal circumstances.

Taxation

Usually premiums are not tax deductible and any benefit payments are not assessable for tax purposes. These comments are a guide only and do not take into account changes in taxation laws or your particular circumstances. Please ask your tax adviser or the Australian Taxation Office about your own circumstances.

Making a claim

Your nominated beneficiary or legal personal representative will need to contact us as soon as possible after the event giving rise to the claim. A claims pack will be sent out detailing what information is required by us to assess the claim.

Commission

The premiums you pay take into account any commissions payable so it is not an additional charge to you. The amount of commission may vary and could be up to 100% of your first year premium (excluding government charges).
