General Insurance Transfer

Australian Associated Motor Insurers Limited will transfer its general insurance business to a related company, AAI Limited ABN 48 005 297 807 (AAI) by way of a scheme under the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth), which has been confirmed by the Federal Court of Australia.

In the months before the Court confirmed the scheme, Australian Associated Motor Insurers Limited undertook steps (including but not limited to newspaper and internet advertising, information included in regular operational correspondence and email communications) to bring the then proposed transfer to the attention of policyholders.

The scheme will take effect on and from 1 July 2013, or such other date agreed by AAI and Australian Associated Motor Insurers Limited and approved by the Court (the Effective Date) and is one of four schemes which are occurring simultaneously as part of an internal reorganisation.

On and from the Effective Date:

- AAI will become the underwriter of all general insurance policies issued by Australian Associated Motor Insurers Limited and will settle all claims under those policies;
- AAI will issue AAMI branded general insurance policies (and PDSs for those policies) and will trade under the business name 'AAMI'; and
- all references to Australian Associated Motor Insurers Limited ABN 92 004 791 744 AFSL No. 238173 (however that company may be referred to) in the PDS, and any other SPDS that you have been given for your PDS and in your policy documents (including your policy schedule or certificate) will be a reference to AAI Limited ABN 48 005 297 807 AFSL No. 230859, trading as AAMI.

All policies issued / contracts of insurance entered into:

- before the Effective Date will be issued by and entered into with Australian Associated Motor Insurers Limited and will be transferred to AAI on the Effective Date; and
- on or after the Effective Date will be issued by and entered into with AAI.

Each PDS except as indicated above is unchanged, including:

- AAMI's contact details;
- How you deal with us.

There is no action required by you in respect of this change.
