What is a Target Market Determination?

A Target Market Determination (TMD) is a determination that AAMI has made to:

- describe the classes of customers for whom this Product has been designed;
- specify distribution conditions;
- specify TMD review periods and triggers; and
- set out reporting requirements.

This TMD assists AAMI staff, our distributors and customers in understanding the target market for this Product. In this TMD, distribution includes the following conduct in relation to retail customers:

- dealing in the Product (e.g. issuing or arranging for insurance to be issued to a customer);
- giving a PDS or other regulated disclosure document; and
- providing general financial product advice in relation to the Product.

This TMD is not the PDS and is not a summary of the features or terms of the Product. For full details of the cover available in this Product, including the terms, conditions and exclusions that apply read the PDS which can be found at www.aami.com.au.

What is the target market for this Product?

The target market for the Product is those customers for whom it is likely to be suitable for, taking into account:

- the key attributes;
- the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of customers who will acquire the Product; and
- key eligibility and suitability criteria.

What are the key attributes of this Product?

A customer can choose to tailor cover under their policy to meet their own financial situation, objectives and needs. The choices that the customer can make will impact the kind and scope of cover, excess amount, policy premium amount and structure.

Customers can adjust the premium, and some other amounts payable under their policy, to suit their circumstances by choosing from a range of excesses, amounts of cover, options and by choosing to pay annually or by instalments.

The below table describes the key attributes for each type and level of cover.

Building	Contents

Why is the Product appropriate for customers in the target market?

This Product is likely to provide value to, and be consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of, the customers in the target market because:

- the Product provides cover for the types of loss or damage that customers in the target market might need; and
- the Product can be tailored to suit individual objectives, needs and financial circumstances by allowing customers flexibility to choose from a range of excesses, options, amounts of cover and payment options.

When will we review this TMD?

We will complete a review of this TMD for this Product by no later than the following periods:

- a. First review period:
By 04/08/2023.
- b. Ongoing review periods:
At least every 2 years following the first review period.
- c. Significant impact review:
Within 1 year of the TMD being updated based on a Review Trigger, a significant dealing outside of target market or a material change to the Product's distribution channel.

Other circumstances which will trigger a TMD review

Triggers for this Product are:

- if one or more terms of the Product are altered and we consider that this alteration reasonably suggests that this TMD is no longer appropriate;
- an event or circumstance occurs that materially changes a factor taken into account when making the TMD that would suggest to us that the TMD is no longer appropriate, such as a change in underwriting requirements;
- the discovery of a material defect in the PDS which reasonably suggests that the TMD is no longer appropriate;
- if feedback, such as significant or systemic complaints or claims issues, is received from a distributor or customers who purchased the Product, and we consider that this reasonably suggests to us the TMD is no longer appropriate;
- if feedback, regulatory orders or directions received from a regulator, the Code Governance Committee (CGC) or Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) suggest this TMD is no longer appropriate;
- if a change in law, regulation, or regulatory guidance that materially affects the Product design or distribution of the Product (or class of products that includes this Product) where we consider that this reasonably suggests that this TMD is no longer appropriate;
- where significant dealings outside the TMD occurs, and we consider that this reasonably suggests that this TMD is no longer appropriate;
- if a remediation event relating to this Product occurs where we consider this would reasonably suggest that:
 - this Product is unsuitable for a particular cohort of customers; and
 - the TMD may no longer be appropriate.
- if we consider, through our ongoing monitoring of product value data metrics (such as those identified in the section of this TMD titled 'Information to assess TMDs and reporting periods'), that material deviations have occurred in a combination of data metrics reasonably suggesting that the Product is not providing value or the TMD is no longer appropriate.

What distribution conditions apply to this Product?

The following conditions apply to this Product:

- those distributors who distribute the Product are required to be authorised by us to distribute this Product and those arrangements must not be cancelled or suspended;
- this Product must only be distributed in accordance with this TMD;
- distribution of this Product must comply with all of our eligibility and underwriting criteria;
- distribution of this Product must be conducted through our policy administration system through the following distribution channels:
 - websites;
 - contact centres;
- this Product cannot be distributed where this TMD is not up to date and no new TMD has been published; and
- the TMD must be current and not subject to any ASIC action that might suggest that the TMD is no longer appropriate.

These distribution conditions are supported by business processes, including reasonable platform controls (such as knockout underwriting questions), staff and distributor training, telephone and platform scripting and quality assurance programs, designed to ensure that the Product is distributed to customers within the target market.

When do third party distributors need to report complaints about this Product to us?

Third party distributors who distribute our products need to provide us information on complaints made about this Product on a Quarterly basis (Complaints Reporting Period).

Third party distributors who distribute our products are required to provide to us this complaints information within 10 business days of the end of the Complaints Reporting Period.

All complaints lodged with us are handled in accordance with Suncorp's Group Complaint Management Standard.
